SUMMARY:

Fort Meade is bordered by three counties, Anne Arundel, Howard and Prince Georges, each its own school district. It is important to remember all schools on and off Fort Meade are governed by these local counties. The seven schools on post are owned and operated by Anne Arundel County. Residential Address will be the determining factor of school assignment within each district. Before and After School care programs are offered at some area schools and by the Fort Meade Child, Youth and School Services. Transportation to and from Fort Meade Child, Youth and School Services Program is available at 7 Anne Arundel County schools: Manor View Elementary, Pershing Hill Elementary, West Meade Early Education Center, Seven Oaks Elementary (Not on Installation), Meade Heights Elementary, MacArthur Middle School and Meade Middle School. Please note: All off post districts and or school assignments are designated by the selected residential address. Each district has an internal transfer process and the internal transfer must be approved on an annual basis. School district transfers (County to County) are only granted
